The photo contest, this year in its first edition, is promoted by:

Stefano Bianchi - Crowdbooks | Paola Riccardi - Gallery Al142 | NOC - New Old Camera |

Bruno Melada - Fine Art Print | Frequenze Visive Association of Photography and Multimedia Art | Società Agricola Gerolimetto. Directed by Enzo Cortini.

HOW THE AWARD IS BORN

The Prize is dedicated to the memory of the photographer Nicola Paccagnella, who died prematurely last February. Umane Tracce, an intense portrait of a factory in the process of being demolished, a silent witness to the humanity that inhabited it, is the finished work he left us. Published last year in a Crowdbooks book and edited in an exhibition, this project was conducted with rigor and sensitivity. The Award is dedicated to the seriousness and humanity, typical of his approach to photography and inspired by the desire to remember him every year. The Prize also responds to the desire to create concrete and excellent opportunities for emerging photographers who have created a well-conceived photographic project.

REGULATION

The Prize is free to participate and is open to Italian and foreign photographers with no age limit. The Prize will select a photographic story that expresses a humanistic approach to the theme it deals with. The theme must adhere to the concept of a contemporary humanism, understood as attention to the great themes of Humanity and the lives of people.

The photographic works can be presented starting from January 1st2021, and must be sent no later than December 31st2021. The works of the jury will be held in February. The award ceremony open to the public and the presentation of the volume will take place on March 31st, 2022. The winning work and extracts from the works of the other two winners will be published in an exhibition curated by Paola Riccardi, who will accompany the awards event.

A selection of 25 images is required, which represent the body of a single project.

The material can be b / w or color, reportage or personal research, documentary or related to current issues.
